

EL DORADO HILLS Economic Index™

Three of five index components increased in Q1 16, pushing the El Dorado Hills Economic Index up .7% from the previous quarter.

Many components continued to show strong performances. In Q1 16, there were over $58 million in building permits issued, with 78% of all permits issued for new projects. Employment has remained over double the pre-recession level of Q1 08 with a seasonally adjusted 20,651 residents employed. Sales Tax and Transient Occupancy Tax both had their highest grossing quarters in Q1 16. The average sales price of homes decreased slightly, down 4.2% from the previous quarter. Although prices were down, there were 21 more closed sales.
